Asian Ecumenical Institute (AEI)–2022
‘God of Hope, Sustain Your Creation in Harmony’
19 September – 14 October 2022 | CCA Headquarters, Chiang Mai, Thailand

Esteemed Ecumenical Colleagues,

Warm greetings from the Christian Conference of Asia (CCA) in Chiang Mai, Thailand.

We are pleased to inform you that the Asian Ecumenical Institute (AEI)–2022 will be held at the CCA Headquarters, Payap University, Chiang Mai, Thailand. Organised annually by the CCA, the AEI has been providing opportunities for young people across Asia since 2016 to learn about ecumenism and the ecumenical movement.

The theme of the AEI–2022 has been developed within the conceptual framework of wider ecumenism with a specific thematic focus on ‘God of Hope, Sustain Your Creation in Harmony’. A team of prominent theologians and ecumenists with professional expertise at the international level will be the main resource persons.

Admissions will be limited to up to twenty participants, and selections will be based on competence, gender, and confessional balances, sub-regional representation, and the applicant’s ability to effectively communicate in English.

The CCA member churches and councils are encouraged to recommend interested candidates to apply for the AEI–2022.

The deadline for receiving the completed application forms is 12 August 2022. Along with the letter, please find the Application Form and the Background Information note which outlines the application process. For queries regarding AEI–2022, please write to cca.aei@cca.org.hk.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours along the journey,

Dr Mathews George Chunakara
General Secretary, CCA
